PRESS RELEASE

Financed by the European Social Fund (Notice n.7 2023 PR Sicily 2021/2027)

Cedifop, registrations for 2 free courses are still open of “Underwater Technical Operator” and “Inshore diver”

The selections are scheduled for February 16th

PALERMO (10 February 2024) – At the Cedifop Study Center for industrial underwater professional training, located within the port of Palermo, registration is open for the free courses financed by Notice no. 7 2023 PR of the European Social Fund 2021/ 2021. The two courses, aimed at strengthening employability in Sicily, were included by Cedifop in project no. 443 entitled “Underwater metalworkers: OTS- Inshore – Offshore”.

The first of the two courses is for "Underwater Technical Operator" lasting 854 hours and is aimed at 15 recipients with the following requirements necessary to take part in the selections: being resident or domiciled in Sicily; be of working age; minors must have completed compulsory schooling; possess the minimum qualification required for the type of training path to be activated, as established in the course sheets available in the Qualifications Directory. This course allows students who have obtained the qualification to be able to register in the Register of Divers at a Port Authority in Italy. It also allows access to the subsequent "Inshore-

Underwater Welder" course to achieve the qualification of "Inshore diver" and the certification of "Underwater Welder" by Bureau Veritas in accordance with UNI EN ISO 15618-1 ("Qualification tests of welders for underwater welding – Underwater welders for hyperbaric welding in a wet environment").

The other course is for "Technical Underwater Operator Inshore Diver or diver" and will last 654 hours. The course is always aimed at 15 recipients who meet the requirements as in the previous one and, once the qualification has been obtained, in addition to the rights of the "Underwater Technical Operator" course, it also gives the possibility of registering in the Telematic Repertoire of Industrial Diving at the Department Regional Labor Council (L.R. 07/2016), for the "Inshore" qualification level.

Anyone interested in participating in the selections, scheduled for February 16th, can contact Cedifop on 338.3756051 or 091.426935.
